In the best interest of all graduate and professional students, these By-Laws to the Constitution of the Graduate and Professional Student Council of Texas A&M University, will govern the Graduate and Professional Student Council and its committees in all cases in which they are not in conflict with the Constitution of the Graduate and Professional Student Council. These By-Laws will be reviewed annually and revised, if necessary.

Article I. Membership

Section I. Representatives

1. Representative(s) should be appointed or chosen as a result of elections by the graduate or professional students in the Representative's department, program, or organization. However, if a Representative is not appointed or chosen as a result of elections by a recognized department, program, or organization as of the first day of fall semester classes, eligible students may apply without appointment or election by their department, program, or organization directly to the Graduate and Professional Student Council Executive Committee for the opportunity to serve as a Representative for their current graduate and professional department, program, or organization. The eligible Representative(s) will be selected by the Graduate and Professional Student Council Executive Committee.
2. In the event that a Representative fails to meet any requirements defined in the Constitution or By-Laws, the Representative will be determined to be an unqualified member and will be subject to replacement or removal by the Executive Committee. If action is required, the Executive Vice President will inform the Representative and the Representative's department, program, or organization that they can no longer serve as a Representative.
3. The role of the Representative is to serve as the voice of their particular department, program, or organization.
4. Representatives have the following minimum duties:
 - a. Attend every Graduate and Professional Student Council General Assembly meeting and the University Committee meetings for which they are assigned. In the event that a Representative is unable to attend a meeting, it is their responsibility to ensure that a Representative attends in their place.
 - b. Collect concerns from and communicate pertinent information back to graduate and/or professional students of their constituency in a timely fashion.
 - c. Speak for the best interests of the entire graduate and professional student body as a member of the Graduate and Professional Student Council and for the best interests of their constituency during Graduate and Professional Student Council General Assembly meetings.
 - d. Respect all members of the Graduate and Professional Student Council and University Committees and conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times.
 - e. Promote general awareness of the Graduate and Professional Student Council to the graduate and professional student body as well as University and local communities.

5. Representatives will contribute to the work of the Graduate and Professional Student Council by actively serving on both:
 - a. One (1) Graduate and Professional Student Council Standing Committee, Special Committee, or Ad Hoc Committee.
 - b. One (1) University Committee or other exterior committee, as coordinated by the Vice President of University Affairs.
6. Representatives are responsible for the following items with regard to University Committees:
 - a. Attend each committee meeting and speak for the best interests of the entire graduate and professional student body.
 - b. Collect concerns from graduate and professional students about topics related to the University Committee on which they serve.
 - c. Respond to inquiries from graduate and professional students about issues related to the University Committee on which they serve.
 - d. Promote general awareness of the Graduate and Professional Student Council through the University Committee on which they serve.
 - e. Report on the happenings of these University Committee meetings to the Graduate and Professional Student Council General Assembly.
 - f. If the Representative is no longer able to fulfill their duty on a University Committee, the Representative is to contact the Vice President of University Affairs so that an alternate Representative can be appointed, and the Representative can be reassigned to another committee.

Section II. Delegates

1. Delegates are Representatives with voting privileges, as per the Constitution.
2. Each recognized department, program, or organization may provide a Delegate for all Business and Special meetings of the Graduate and Professional Student Council General Assembly, as defined by the Constitution.
3. A department, program, or organization that does not have representation at two (2) consecutive Business and/or Special meetings will be placed on probation. Delegates for departments, programs, or organizations on probation will not be permitted to vote on Graduate and Professional Student Council business.
